

BLSC June News

The club has been very busy in May and members will notice a number of improvements. At the back beach there are 3 new kayak racks designed to fit the smaller kayaks that have become very popular at the club. The members camping area has a new sign. The propane that was previously stored inside the boat house has now been moved into a bright yellow propane cage at the far end of the members camping area which is also the start of the septic bed. This location is ideal as it is away from both the buildings and the edge of the forest. The cage is locked but members can use their key if they need to replace an empty tank from one of the club's two BBQs.

Members will also notice that the club house door now has a sign indicating an AED is on site. The AED is in a bright red bag on the wall of the club house. When racing is happening the AED will be at the race stand and a sign on the wall lets members know "AED at race stand".

Looking forward into June the driveway will be improved with a load of gravel and volunteers with a skid steer and rakes will move it into place. Members wanting to help rake the morning of Monday, June 4 can reply to this email.
